

Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies

Symposium

10 Years Binding Charter of Fundamental Rights

28 February 2020

Moot Court Room, Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge

Programme

11.30–11.45	Welcome Kenneth Armstrong
11.45–1.00	Panel 1 Aida Torres Pérez Constitutionalising Effect of the Charter Eleni Frantziou Horizontal Effect of the Charter
1.00–2.00	Lunch break
2.00–3.15	Panel 2 Clara Rauchegger The Charter and National Fundamental Rights Emily Hancox The Charter and other Sources of EU Law

3.15–3.45	Coffee break
-----------	--------------

3.45–5.00	Panel 3 Anthony Arnull Article 47 of the Charter and the Death of National Procedural Autonomy Nora Ni Loideain Art 7 and 8 – Data Privacy and National Security under the Charter
-----------	--

5.00	Closing Remarks
------	------------------------

Conveners

Kenneth Armstrong	Professor of European Law, University of Cambridge, Editor-in-Chief, Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies
Clara Rauchegger	Assistant Professor of European Union Law and Digital Technology Law, University of Innsbruck

Speakers

Anthony Arnull	Barber Professor of Jurisprudence, University of Birmingham
Eleni Frantziou	Assistant Professor in Public Law and Human Rights, Durham Law School, University of Durham
Emily Hancox	Spencer-Fairest Fellow in Law, Selwyn College, University of Cambridge
Nora Ni Loideain	Director and Lecturer in Law, Information Law & Policy Centre, Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London
Aida Torres Pérez	Professor of Constitutional Law, Deputy Director of the Law Department, Pompeu Fabra University (Barcelona)

