

Travel Information and Directions

Law Faculty Open Day, Wednesday 4 July 2018

Maps

The Law Faculty Open Day will be held at the Law Faculty Building, on the Sidgwick Site in Cambridge:

The David Williams Building
10 West Road
Cambridge, CB3 9DZ
United Kingdom

By Car

If you plan to drive to Cambridge, we recommend that you make use of the Cambridge Park and Ride network, which includes five parking sites with buses to central Cambridge. The Madingley Road site is the closest to the Faculty. You can find more information on the Cambridge Park and Ride website: cambridgeparkandride.info

During weekdays, parking is not permitted on the Sidgwick site, except to permit holders. There are a number of car parks in the town centre. Details are available on the Cambridge City Council website at cambridge.gov.uk/parking.

For further information about driving and parking in Cambridge for blue badge holders or those with special access needs, please see the University's Disability Resource Centre website (disability.admin.cam.ac.uk/access-around-university/cambridge-city-information) or get in touch with the Outreach Team at the Law Faculty at outreach@law.cam.ac.uk

By Train

Cambridge is well connected by train, including regular trains to and from London Kings Cross. For more information on train times, visit the National Rail website: nationalrail.co.uk

The Cambridge railway station is situated one mile from the town centre, or about a 30 minute walk from the station to the Faculty of Law.

The 'U'/Universal Bus Service runs regularly between the train station and the Sidgewick Site; the "West Road" stop is the closest stop to the Faculty. For timetables and further information, see the Whippet website: go-whippet.co.uk/new-route-u

There is also a taxi rank outside the train station. Ask to be dropped off on West Road; follow the path into the Sidgwick site and after 50 yards you will see the Faculty of Law building on your left.

By Bus/Coach

National Express coaches usually stop on Parkside, next to Parker's Piece in the Cambridge city centre. For information on nationwide scheduled coach services, see the National Express website: nationalexpress.com.

The Stagecoach X5 service links Cambridge and Oxford via Bedford, Milton Keynes, Buckingham and Bicester, and also stops on Parkside. For more information, see the Stagecoach website: stagecoachbus.com/plan-a-journey

For local bus services, the Drummer Street bus station is situated in Cambridge town centre. It's a 15 minute walk from the bus station to the Faculty of Law. For more information, see the Cambridgeshire County Council website: cambridgeshire.gov.uk/residents/travel-roads-and-parking/buses/bus-timetables

By Air

The nearest airports to Cambridge are Stansted (30 miles) and Luton (40 miles). There is a direct train link to Cambridge from Stansted, and Heathrow and Gatwick are also easily accessible by train (via London King's Cross/London St Pancras). In addition, buses regularly run from Stansted, Luton, Heathrow and Gatwick to the Cambridge city centre.
